These entities were used to facilitate a telemarketing fraud operation within the Southern District of Florida.

7. At times material to each count of this Indictment, Americas International Bank Corporation, Limited (AIBC), was a bank registered to do business in the Bahamas, which was located in Nassau, Bahamas.

COUNT 1

INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. The members and associates of the Trafficante Organized Crime Family of La Cosa Nostra (hereafter referred to as "the Trafficante Family"), were a criminal organization that operated in the Southern District of Florida, Tampa, Florida, and elsewhere.

2. The Trafficante Family operated through groups of individuals headed by "captains," who were referred to as "capos" or "skippers." These groups, which were referred to as "crews," and "regimes," consisted of "made" members of the Trafficante Family, who were also referred to as "soldiers," and of non-member criminal associates of the Family.

3. In the Southern District of Florida, Steve Raffa operated and maintained a "crew" for the Trafficante Family that engaged in various criminal acts, including loansharking, extortion, money laundering, bank fraud, dealing in stolen property and illegal gambling, among other crimes. The "crew" was directly supervised by defendant JOHN MAMONE who reported directly to Steve Raffa. This "crew" consisted of certain non-member criminal associates of the Trafficante Family.

4. The Federal Bureau of Investigation conducted undercover investigations in which cooperating witnesses, who previously had been associated with organized crime groups that operated in the Southern District of Florida and elsewhere, worked in an undercover capacity for the purpose of gathering evidence concerning the criminal activities of the members as described below, as well as others engaged in criminal activities on behalf of other racketeering enterprises.

THE ENTERPRISE

5. At all times relevant to this Indictment, in the Southern District of Florida and elsewhere, defendants JOHN MAMONE, JOSEPH RUSSO, FRED MORGESTERN, DAVID MORGESTERN, JOSEPH SILVESTRI, MICHAEL BUCCINNA, DAVID BELL, JOHN O'SULLIVAN, MARK CARATTINI, ANSON KLINGER, and MARK WEISS and other persons constituted an enterprise within the meaning of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961 (4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact. The purpose of the enterprise was to enrich its members through various criminal activities, including the making and collecting of extortionate loans, interference of commerce by threats of violence, money laundering, obstruction of state and local law enforcement, the operation of illegal gambling businesses, bank fraud, mail and wire fraud, the sale and receipt of stolen goods, interstate and foreign travel in aid of racketeering, obstruction of justice and through the collection of unlawful debt.

THE CONSPIRACY

6. From in or about 1995, the exact date being unknown to the Grand Jury, and continuing thereafter up to and including the date of the return of the Indictment, in the Southern District of Florida and elsewhere, the defendants,

JOHN MAMONE,
JOSEPH RUSSO,
FRED MORGESTERN,
DAVID MORGESTERN,
JOSEPH SILVESTRI,
MICHAEL BUCCINNA,
DAVID BELL,
JOHN O'SULLIVAN,
MARK WEISS,
MARK CARATTINI, and
ANSON KLINGER,

together with others, being persons employed by and associated with the enterprise described in paragraph 5 of this Count, which enterprise engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce, knowingly and intentionally did combine, conspire, confederate, and agree together, and with each other, and with persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 1962(c), that is, to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1961(1) and (5) as set forth in paragraph 7 below, and through the collection of unlawful debts as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(6), and as set forth in paragraph 8 below.

PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY

7. The pattern of racketeering activity that the defendants agreed would be committed in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise consisted of multiple acts involving violations of the following laws:

A. Sale and receipt of stolen goods, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 2315;

B. Engaging in monetary transactions in property derived from specified unlawful activity and conspiracy to do so, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1956 and 1957;

C. Laundering of monetary instruments and conspiracy to do so, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956;

D. Conducting, financing, managing, supervising and directing illegal gambling businesses, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1955;

E. Interstate travel or transportation in aid of racketeering enterprises, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1952;

F. Obstruction of state and local law enforcement, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1511;

G. Bank fraud, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344;

H. Mail fraud, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1341;

I. Wire fraud, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343;

J. Collection of extensions of credit by extortionate means and conspiracy to do so, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 894;

K. Making extortionate extensions of credit and conspiracy to do so, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 892; and,

L. Obstruction of Justice, in violation of and indictable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1503.

COLLECTION OF UNLAWFUL DEBT

8. The collection of unlawful debt through which the defendants and their coconspirators agreed to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise consisted of the collection from various individuals of unlawful debts, as that term is defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(6), to wit: a) a debt which was incurred and contracted in gambling activity and which was incurred in connection with the business of gambling, which activity and business were in violation of the laws of the United States and Florida; and b) debts which were unenforceable under State and Federal law in whole and in part as to principal and interest because of the laws relating to usury and which were incurred in connection with the business of lending money at a rate usurious under State and Federal law, where the usurious rate was at least twice the lawfully enforceable rate.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

9. It was part of the conspiracy that each defendant agreed that a conspirator would commit at least two racketeering acts, or participate in the collection of at least one unlawful debt, in conducting the affairs of the enterprise.

10. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendant JOHN MAMONE would supervise and direct members of the conspiracy in the commission of various criminal acts as set forth in paragraph 7, above, for the economic benefit of the members of the enterprise.

11. It was further part of the conspiracy that Steve Raffa and defendants JOHN MAMONE and MICHAEL BUCCINNA would supervise and coordinate the activities of the large-scale illegal gambling business that was operated by defendants MARK CARATTINI, ANSON KLINGER, and other coconspirators for the benefit of the enterprise.

12. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants MICHAEL BUCCINNA, MARK CARATTINI, ANSON KLINGER and other coconspirators would manage the day-to-day operation of the illegal gambling business on behalf of defendant JOHN MAMONE, which included the collection of gambling debts, among other activities.

13. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendant JOHN MAMONE and other co-conspirators involved in the illegal gambling business would use a corrupt City of Margate police officer, to obstruct state and federal law enforcement investigations of the illegal gambling business being operated by the enterprise.

14. It was part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, MICHAEL BUCCINNA, DAVID BELL, JOHN O'SULLIVAN, MARK WEISS, and other coconspirators would operate a loanshark business that involved making extortionate loans to borrowers and using threats of violence and physical violence in collecting debts from either borrowers or losing bettors who incurred gambling debts to the enterprise.

15. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendant JOHN MAMONE and other coconspirators would negotiate counterfeit checks through check cashing stores under the control of the enterprise for the purpose of generating profits.

16. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendant JOHN MAMONE, DAVID BELL, JOHN O'SULLIVAN and other coconspirators would obtain and sell stolen property for the purpose of generating substantial profits on behalf of the enterprise.

17. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, FRED MORGESTERN, MICHAEL BUCCINNA, and other coconspirators would supervise and control the business operations of check cashing stores located in South Florida for the purpose of promoting and concealing the criminal activities engaged in by members of the enterprise.

18. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, FRED MORGESTERN, MICHAEL BUCCINNA, MARK WEISS and other coconspirators would use check cashing stores controlled by the enterprise as a means of collecting illegal proceeds from loanshark borrowers and losing bettors who were victims of the enterprise.

19. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, FRED MORGESTERN and other coconspirators would obtain substantial funds from area banks by initiating "check kiting" schemes that would engender operating funds for the enterprise.

20. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, DAVID BELL and other coconspirators would provide assistance to other coconspirators in the operation of telemarketing fraud schemes.

21. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, JOSEPH RUSSO, MICHAEL BUCCINNA, MARK WEISS and other coconspirators would provide the services of various check cashing stores for the purpose of promoting the operation and concealment of the illegal proceeds derived from telemarketing fraud committed by other coconspirators and other persons for the enrichment of the enterprise.

22. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, FRED MORGESTERN, DAVID MORGESTERN, JOSEPH SILVESTRI, MICHAEL BUCCINNA, DAVID BELL, MARK WEISS and other coconspirators would assist a criminal group operating in South Carolina, which engaged in an investment fraud scheme involving mail and wire fraud in return for a share of the illegal proceeds obtained from investor/victims.

23. It was further part of the conspiracy that the criminal group from South Carolina would send and transport personal checks in an aggregate amount exceeding $30,000,000 in criminally derived property obtained from defrauded investor/victims throughout the United States to defendants JOHN MAMONE, FRED MORGESTERN, DAVID MORGESTERN, MICHAEL BUCCINNA and other coconspirators for the purpose of promoting the investment fraud scheme and concealing the location of the criminally derived proceeds for the benefit of the enterprise.

24. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants JOHN MAMONE, FRED MORGESTERN, DAVID MORGESTERN, JOSEPH SILVESTRI, MICHAEL BUCCINNA, MARK WEISS and other coconspirators would further assist the criminal group from South Carolina by causing the depositing of personal checks from investor/victims into accounts maintained by the enterprise's check cashing stores.

25. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants FRED MORGESTERN, DAVID MORGESTERN, JOSEPH SILVESTRI and other coconspirators would assist the criminal group from South Carolina by transferring the illegally derived funds through various financial institutions in South Florida to bank accounts in the Bahamas, England and Switzerland. Said defendants were involved in these transactions for the purpose of promoting the investment fraud scheme and concealing the location of the criminally derived proceeds from the victim/investors and law enforcement for the benefit of the enterprise.

26. It was further a part of the conspiracy that defendant JOHN O'SULLIVAN would corruptly endeavor to obstruct justice by attempting to persuade another member of the enterprise not to provide truthful information and testimony to United States relating to the criminal involvement of other members of the enterprise.

27. It was further part of the conspiracy that coconspirators would take all steps necessary to prevent the detection by law enforcement of the criminal activities for the benefit of the enterprise.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1962(d).

COUNT 2

1. From in or about 1995, and continuing thereafter up to and including the date of the return of this Indictment, in the Southern District of Florida and elsewhere, the defendants,

JOHN MAMONE,
MICHAEL BUCCINNA,
MARK CARATTINI,
ANSON KLINGER,
CHARLES CLAY,

and other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, knowingly conducted, financed, managed, supervised, directed, and owned all or part of an illegal gambling business which involved five or more persons who conducted, financed, managed, supervised, directed, and owned, all or part of such business and which had a gross revenue of two thousand dollars ($2,000) or more on one or more single day and was in substantially continuous operation for a period in excess of thirty days, and which business was in violation of the laws of the State of Florida, Section 849.25 and other applicable law.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1955 and 2.

COUNT 3

1. From in or about 1999, and continuing thereafter up to and including January 30, 2001, in the Southern District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendants,

JOHN MAMONE,
FREDERICK SCAROLA,
CHARLES CLAY,

and other persons unlawfully, willfully and knowingly did combine, conspire, confederate and agree together with each other and with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury to obstruct the enforcement of the criminal laws of the State of Florida, that is, Section 849.25 Florida Statutes and other applicable laws, with the intent to facilitate an illegal gambling business.

2. At all times during the course of the conspiracy, defendant CHARLES CLAY was an appointed official of the State of Florida, that is, a sworn police officer of the City of Margate, Florida, Police Department.

3. At all times during the course of the conspiracy, the defendant JOHN MAMONE and other coconspirators conducted, supervised, directed, and owned all or part of an illegal gambling business in Broward County, which said business included but was not limited to bookmaking in violation of the laws of the State of Florida.

4. At all times during the course of the conspiracy, the defendant FREDERICK SCAROLA and other coconspirators conducted, supervised, directed, and owned all or part of an illegal gambling business in Broward County, which said business included but was not limited to bookmaking in violation of the laws of the State of Florida.

5. At all times during the course of the conspiracy, the illegal gambling business involved five or more persons who conducted, financed, managed, supervised, directed and owned all or part of the business, and the business remained in substantially continuous operation for a period in excess of thirty days.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the objects thereof, the defendants and their coconspirators committed in the Southern District of Florida, at least one of the following overt acts, among others.

1. On or about February 4, 2000, in the Southern District of Florida, defendant FREDERICK SCAROLA advised defendant JOHN MAMONE that defendant CHARLES CLAY had recently learned that the FBI was investigating Gold Coast Check Cashing located in Margate, Florida.

2. On or about February 4, 2000, in the Southern District of Florida, defendant FREDERICK SCAROLA informed another person that there was a source with the Margate Police Department who warned FREDERICK SCAROLA of an FBI investigation of Gold Coast Check Cashing in Margate, Florida.

3. On or about February 11, 2000, in the Southern District of Florida, defendant FREDERICK SCAROLA informed another person that based upon information provided by a Margate police officer that members of the illegal gambling business should refrain from visiting Gold Coast Check Cashing in Margate, Florida, because the business was under investigation by the FBI.

4. On February 11, 2000, in the Southern District of Florida, defendant FREDERICK SCAROLA met with defendant CHARLES CLAY at Bobby Rubino's Restaurant in North Lauderdale, Florida.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1511.
